Swami Sahajanand College, Jehanabad

Christened after Swami Sahjanand Saraswati, S. S. College, Jehanabad is a premier institution of Magadh University, Bodhgaya imparting quality education in General as well as Vocational or Professional Courses in both Graduate and Post-Graduate levels in the region. Vocational courses in the college include courses like B.C.A., B.B.M, B.Sc. in Biotechnology, BLIS, and M.Sc. in Computer Science. Moreover, the college is also recognized as a study center of Nalanda Open University and Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), New Delhi. The college has lush green vegetation and is sprawled over about 24 acres of land on the bank of the sacred Dardha River. The college has well-developed science laboratories, a rich central library with annual subscriptions to journals on different subjects, and a highly equipped gym for both boys and girls.

About the University

Magadh University is the largest university in Bihar with 19 constituent and about 39 affiliated colleges, 1 Engineering college, 2 Law colleges, and 2 Dental colleges in the Magadh division of Bihar. Magadh University was established on March 1, 1962, as a consequence of the earnest wishes and efforts of the intellectuals and educationists of the Magadh region and Dr. Kali Kinker Dutta, a distinguished historian of scholastic caliber, became the first Vice-Chancellor of the university who further shaped the University as an excellence of teaching and learning in Bihar. However, the foundation stone of the present-day campus was laid on August 20, 1964 by His Excellency Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, the then President of India. After Dr. K.K. Dutta, its founder Vice-Chancellor, Magadh University made steady and admirable progress under the stewardship of about three dozen academicians and administrators as its Vice-Chancellors. At present time, the University is on the path of progress and prosperity under the dynamic stewardship of the present Vice-Chancellor Prof. (Dr.) Rajendra Prasad. This serene center of learning nestles in the vast area of land in the vicinity of Bodh-Gaya, the holy seat of Lord Buddha's enlightenment. It imparts Post-Graduate teaching in 22 subjects in the Faculty of Humanities, Social Sciences, Science, and Commerce and runs several vocational courses like Journalism and Mass Communication, Bio-Chemistry, Electronics, Environmental Science, Library Science, Women's Education, Hotel, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Yoga, Education, Foreign Languages etc. on its campus at Bodh Gaya in addition to the teaching of many subjects in its various constituent as well as affiliated colleges. The teachers of this university along with its colleges are given to teaching with excellence, attending and sometimes presiding over national and international seminars and conferences, contributing illuminating research papers to prestigious Journals, and having several books published by world-class publishers. A large number of its alumni have gained grand success in the fields of arts, science, commerce, law, management, athletics, education, and administration.

Places to Visit

1. Barabar Caves

Barabar Caves are situated in the hilly area near Makhdumpur, 25 km south of Jehanabad. These ancient rock-cut Buddhist chambers date back to 3rd Century A.D. and are renowned as the place of origin of the Ajivika sect. Baba Siddhnath Temple, also known as the Shiva Temple and originally known as Siddheshwar Nath Temple, is located at one of the highest peaks in the range of the Barabar Hills. The temple was built during the Gupta period in the 7th Century A.D. The local legends attribute the construction of the temple to Bana Raja. (the father-in-law of the legendary king Jarasandha of Rajgir).

2. Mahabodhi Temple, Bodh Gaya

The Mahabodhi Temple Complex is one of the four holy sites related to the life of the Lord Buddha, and particularly to the attainment of Enlightenment. The first temple was built by Emperor Asoka in the 3rd century B.C., and the present temple dates from the 5th or 6th centuries. It is one of the earliest Buddhist temples built entirely in brick, still standing in India, from the late Gupta period.

3. Dawthu, Hulasganj

This site contains historical remains of ancient temples and sculptures. The remains resemble the structure of the ancient mandapa and Garbhagriha.

4. Vishnu Temple, Kako

Vishnu Temple, Kako is a place of historical and religious significance. The temple was formally established in 1950. It enshrines a historical idol of Lord Vishnu and is a popular site among tourists. Next to the temple, is a huge pond, which remains flooded with tourists throughout the year especially during the festival of Chhath to offer prayers to Lord Bhaskara (The Sun).
